ARTICLE II (Continued):

- 4. To preserve, protect and improve the privileges and opportunities for use of the longbow and archery for all legitimate recreational purposes.
- 5. To facilitate and conduct educational programs to acquaint members and the public in the use of and respect for the longbow as an effective and suitable weapon for the hunting of game and fish and as an appropriate and historically honorable athletic endeavor.
- 6. To cooperate with public and private organizations, associations and individuals, in fostering and perpetuating the use of the longbow in accordance with its finest traditions and as an activity of human endeavor worthy of study, respect and dignity.
- 7. To encourage the acquisition, study and preservation of knowledge, design, techniques and skills used in the construction of traditional bows and arrows, accessories, their use and the lore of archery.
- 8. To actively support and appropriately commemorate and honor persons and organizations which have made special contributions to the sport of archery, exemplify its finest traditions and share compatible purposes.
- 9. To promote and respect those values, activities, endeavors and places historically associated with the use of the longbow and archery including brotherhood, skills of woodcraft, conservation of wildlife, forests, fields and waters, respect for excellence, the thrill of the chase, the wonders and beauty of nature and the spirit of all things wild.

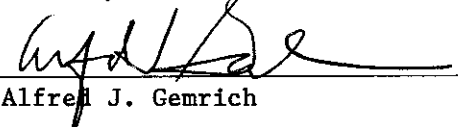

ARTICLE VI:

To the extent permitted by law, a volunteer director shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its members for monetary damages for breach of the director's fiduciary duty. The corporation assumes all liability to any person other than the corporation or its members for all acts or omissions of a volunteer director occurring after January 1, 1988.

ARTICLE VII:

Any action required or permitted by law to be taken at any annual or special meeting of members may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice, and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by the members having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take the action at a meeting at which all members entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. Prompt notice of the taking of the corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to the members who have not consented in writing.

I (We), the incorporator(s) sign my (our) name(s) this 2nd day of June, 19 92.

INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

1. Submit one original copy of this document. Upon filing, a microfilm copy will be prepared for the records of the Corporation and Securities Bureau. The original copy will be returned to the address appearing in the box above as evidence of filing.

Since this document must be microfilmed, it is important that the filing be legible. Documents with poor black and white contrast, or otherwise illegible, will be rejected.

2. This document is to be used pursuant to the provisions of Act 162, P.A. of 1982 by one or more persons for the purpose of forming a domestic nonprofit corporation.

3. Article II — The specific purpose for which the corporation is organized must be included. It is not sufficient to state that the corporation may engage in any activity within the purposes for which corporations may be organized under the Act.

4. Article III — Complete item III(1) or III(2) as appropriate, but not both.

5. Article IV — A post office box may not be designated as the street address of the registered office. The mailing address may differ from the address of the registered office only if a post office box address in the same city as the registered office is designated as the mailing address.

6. Article V — The Act requires one or more incorporators. The addresses should include a street number and name (or other designation), city and state.

7. This document is effective on the date approved and filed by the Bureau. A later effective date, no more than 90 days after the date of delivery, may be stated as an additional article.

8. This document must be signed in ink by each incorporator. However, if there are 3 or more incorporators, they may, by resolution adopted at the organizational meeting by a written instrument, designate one of them to sign the articles of incorporation on behalf of all of them. In such event, these articles of incorporation must be accompanied by a copy of the resolution duly certified by the acting secretary at the organizational meeting and a statement must be placed in the articles incorporating that resolution into them.
